

Hydrographic Internships & Work Placements

The Hydrographic Society UK is seeking to help students and graduates of BSc and MSc programmes in hydrography and associated disciplines to identify companies which may be able to offer them invaluable practical experience via an internship or work placement. Our new online directory will provide potential candidates with an overview of the various opportunities which are available.

We hope that your organisation will recognise the potential benefits of this initiative and show your support by taking a few minutes to complete and return the form below.
